VOL. 47—NO. 285 JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1912 PRICE THREE CENTS

AN EPOCH MAKING COURT DECISION

HAS APPLICATION TO ANTI-TRUST SUITS NOW PENDING.

Supreme Court Holds Owner of Patent Has Unrestricted Monopoly Upon All Articles Used in Its Operations—Three Judges Dissent.

Washington, March 11.—The supreme court today held that the owner of a patent has an unrestricted monopoly upon all articles used in its operation, may fix its price and prescribe its use, and thereby laid down a broad principle of doubtful application to many of the government's important anti-trust suits now pending which involve questions of patent rights.

The court stood four to three. Chief Justice White, with whom dissenting Justices Lamar and Hughes, in a spirited opinion, voiced his dread of the results of the court's work, asking who could foretell the extent of monopoly and wrongful restrictions which would arise. As construed by the majority of the court, the chief justice declared the patent law could reach out to include within a patent every conceivable thing used in every American household.

The chief justice declared that congress should act to head off "untold evils" which would follow the court's construction of the law, and arraigned the majority as having broken all precedents. The court, in its history, he said, had never failed to do its duty to the whole people and to stand as the protector of every household.

Justice Lurton, who delivered the majority opinion, was joined by Justices McKenna, Holmes and Van Deventer.

Make the Statement.

Officials of the department of justice were not inclined to discuss the court's decision or its application to anti-trust suits. Attorney General Wickersham and Solicitor General Lehmann heard the decision and regarded it as epoch-making. Mr. Lehman declined to make a statement and Attorney General Wickersham was unwilling.

During the last two years the department of justice in its prosecutions under the Sherman law has encountered more and more the question of the rights of patentees. Some officials of the department have predicted that the anti-trust suits of the future would be fought along those lines. That question was involved in the case against the electrical trust, now settled in favor of the government, and some officials think the same question might be introduced in any anti-trust suit against any industrial combination.

May Ask Rehearing.

Because of the sweeping importance of the decision to the enforcement of the Sherman law, it is not improbable that a re-hearing may be asked for to bring the question before a full bench of justices. Justice Day did not participate, and the vacancy caused by the death of Justice Harlan has not been filled, though Chancellor Pitney, of New Jersey, has been nominated, but not confirmed by the senate.

Foremost among the pending anti-trust suits, which may now be affected, are those against the United Shoe Machinery company, the Keystone Watch company and the so-called Coaster Brake trust. A score or more of investigations now underway by the department of justice, in which corporations are claiming the right of patentees to certain monopolies and restrictions, are vitally affected.

Cases Affected.

Department of justice officials believe the decision may throw out one feature of the case against the Keystone Watch company, relating to re-selling prices. In the Shoe Machinery company case, in which questions of patent rights are involved, although it is admitted the company may strengthen some portions of its defenses by the decision, the department of justice regards those suits as considerably broader than the usual anti-trust suits involving patentt because of the government's allegation of combination.

The case actulayl before the court concerned the right of the patentee of a rotary mimeograph to bind the purchaser of each machine to use upon it only ink which he manufactured.

The question arose as to whether the license restriction was governed by contract law over which the state courts have jurisdiction, or whether it was controlled by the patent law and thus within the jurisdiction of the federal courts. The New York federal court asked for instructions.

Question Decided Before.

Several times the question had arisen in the federal circuit courts. Most of them had followed a leading decision announced by Justice Lurton, then a circuit judge, and known as the "Button Fastener case." In that decision, Judge Lurton held it was governed by patent law and consquently valid. To day, he approved that decision.

"If a patentee says," began Justice Lurton, in his opinion, "I may suppress my patent if I will. I may make or have made devices under my patent, but I will neither sell or permit anyone to use the patented things, 'he is within his right and none can complain.' But if he says 'I will sell with the right use only with other things proper for using with the machines, and I will sell at the actual cost of machines to me providing you will agree to use only such articles as made by me in connection therewith'—if he chooses to take his profit in this way, instead of taking it by the higher price for the machines, has he exceeded his exclusive right to make, sell and use his patented machines.

"The marekt for the sale of such articles to the users of his machines, which by such a condition he takes to himself, was a market which he alone created by the making and the selling of the new invention. Had he kept his invention to himself, no ink could have been sold by others for use upon machines embodying that invention. By selling it subject to the restriction he took nothing from others and in no wise restricted their legitimate market."

Reasons for Dissent.

One of the express reasons given by Chief Justice White for his dissent was to make it clear that if evils arise from the decision, "their continuation will not be caused by the interpretation given to the statute, but will result from the inaction of the legislative department in failing to amend the statute so as to avoid such evils. This amendment would be some restriction on the use of a patent.

Chief Justice White contended that the "license restriction" was a collateral contract relation and criticised the court for "unwarrantedly extending" the federal judicial power over them.

"The ruling now made," he said "in effect, is that the patentee has the power, by contract, to extend his rights so as to bring within the claims of his patent things which are not embraced therein, thus virtually legislating by causing the patent laws to cover subjects to which without the exercise of the right of contract, they could not reach, the result being not only to multiply monopolies at the will of an interested party, but also to destroy the jurisdiction of state courts over subjects which from the beginning have been within their authority."

REFERRED TO UNDESIRABLES

PUBLISHED ATTACKS ON WILSON ANSWERED.

Explains His Attitude on Subject of Immigration of Italians, Hungarians and Poles—Contends Malicious Injustice Has Been Done Him.

Madison, Wis., March 11.—Governor Woodrow Wilson's attitude on the subject of the immigration of Italians, Hungarians and Poles is stated in a letter to John A. Aylward, of this city, made public tonight. The letter was evoked by published attacks based on quotations from Governor Wilson's historical writings.

"He must be a very ignorant man, who does not know," says the governor, "the distinction attaching to the history of the great Italian people, and of the Hungarian and Polish nations, which, through so many generations, have made a gallant struggle to maintain the rights of man, and who have in the process developed so many qualities that entitled them to the profound respect of the world. I have never for a moment regretted that our great composite nation was enriched by the blood of these people.

"All that I commented upon was the undoubted fact that during the years of which I speak some of the baser elements out of these nations—elements such as might have come out of any of the nations of the world—had been brought in undesirable numbers into our ports to the embarrassment of their former compatriots and to the detriment to some of the communities into which they went.

"Clearly the class to which I referred in my history is not the intelligent, liberty-loving class which came of its own volition, seeking a home and a land of freedom. I referred to the class of laborers which was brought here under pauper labor contracts by some of the great protected industries. During the time mentioned, the peoples referred to happened to be the ones drafted upon. This vicious practice became so offensive and dangerous that congress, yielding to a strong demand from the laboring classes, which included Hungarians, Italians and Pole alike, passed a stringent law against the abuse.

"I am sure that the leaders of the Polish, Italian and Hungarian citizens of this country will be the first to realize the malicious injustice which has been done me by putting my views in any other light."

MET TERRIBLE DEATH

Man Caught in Machinery at Elgin Milk Plant.

Elgin, Ill., March 11.—George Rahn, employed by a milk company at Hampshire, Ill., died at an Elgin hospital late to day as the result of an accident which occurred at the milk plant this morning. Rahn's clothing became entangled in the shafting of a machine and he was whirled around a large wheel with terrific force. Rahn's arms and legs were broken and his skull fractured. Nearly all of his clothing was torn from his body before the machine was stopped.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY.

Rock Island, Ill., March 11.—The Rock Island county Republican committee, by a vote of 37 to 2, today ordered a presidential preferential ballot in connection with the April primaries.

SENT ROOSEVELT PLAIN LETTER

DISCUSSES RECALL OF JUDGES AND DECISIONS.

Congressman Campbell Takes Hand in Presidential Preference Primaries—Refers Him to Crucifixion of Christ When Acquitted by Pilate.

Washington, March 11.—Representative Campbell of Kansas, took a hand to day in the presidential preference primary controversy, which has been going on between Senator Joseph M. Dixon, director of the Roosevelt headquarters and Representative McKinley, director of the national Taft bureau. Mr. Campbell gives out copies of a letter from him to Col. Roosevelt.

In his letter, referring to the recall of judges and judicial decisions, Mr. Campbell wrote Col. Roosevelt:

"You have overlooked one of the most important cases ever tried. Pilate acquitted Christ. An appeal from Pilate's decision was taken to the people and the Savior was crucified."

Mr. Campbell says that instead of talking about politics when he made the remark that the Republican party was not in favor of appealing from the decision of the umpire to the bleachers, as Col. Roosevelt believed he was doing, he was discussing Roosevelt's "proposition to appeal from the decisions of the court to the crowd in the court house yard."

"Every man who knows," continued Mr. Campbell, "the old rule of the prize ring knew a few days ago when you said your hat was in the ring, that you were undressing for the fight. The fans know that an appeal from the umpire to the bleachers would end the game.

"Speaking of reactionaries, you will agree that James II. was a reactionary, who recalled judges he had appointed when they would not write the kind of opinions he wanted written. The progressive commons of England made the judges independent of recall for declaring the law instead of the will of the power that made them judges.

"You sometimes refer to Lincoln. You will recall that he said in the midst of a great war for the preservation of this government, that this was 'a government of the people, for the people and by the people.' You will also recall that the instrumentalities by which the people governed themselves when Lincoln made that speech did not include the initiative, the referendum and the recall, nor indeed, the recall of judicial decisions.

"Now does it not look to you, on reflection, like rank reaction to go back to instrumentalities of government, some of them older than Roman civilization, and that brought bad rule and limitation of years rather than good rule and length of days to the governments that adopted and practised them?"

FEELING OF OPTIMISM.

Mexican Officials Hopeful of Crushing Out Revolution.

Mexico City, March 11.—A decided feeling of optimism prevaded the capital to day, affecting foreigners and Mexicans alike. The popular demonstration of loyalty to the government yesterday has had the effect of stiffening the backs of government officials and private citizens. This fact was manifest to day by a material increase in the number of enlistments for army service. Business men generally profess to see a great improvement in the outlook.

Everywhere the opinion was expressed that the life or death of the revolution depends on the developments of the next few days in the vicinity of Torreon. A sentiment of renewed confidence in the ability of the federals to deliver a crushing blow to Orozco was shown.

Reports from the vicinity of Torreon are that volunteers recently recruited in neighboring towns are receiving arms and being entrained for Torreon where General Salazar is mobilizing his forces.

HARD FOR NEW MEMBERS.

George W. English Tells of Troubles of Legislators.

Chicago, Ill., March 11.—George W. English, of Vienna, Ill., Democratic member of the legislature, from the Fifty-first district, during an address before the Anti-Saloon league of the Chicago, Y. M. C. A., to day, declared that it was a civic crme for voters to stay at home on election day.

"You need men in the legislature who are strong enough to withstand the peculiar temptations that are put in their way," said Mr. English. "Men maybe all right at home and they go to the legislature with the best of intentions, but when they get down there, they strike an atmosphere that chills their enthusiasm to strike high ideals.

"The men who represent special interests have such a slick, smooth way about doing things, that it is pretty hard for a new member to keep out of their clitches."

START PRIMARY CAMPAGIN.

Chicago, Ill., March 11.—Arrangements having been made to hold presidential preference primaries in Cok, Rock Island and Winnebago counties, members of the Roosevelt National committee to day started a campaign to have such primaries held in all counties in Illinois. To this end, letters were mailed to day to each county clerk, as the county clerks have charge of the election machinery.

TO LATE TO FILE

Petition of Candidate Still Lies on Table—Will Bring Suit Against Secretary of State.

Springfield, Ill., March 11.—The nomination petition of Reuben R. Tiffany of Freeport, as candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, is still lying on a table in the outer office of Secretary of States Rose, where the document was left late Saturday night after a messenger for Mr. Tiffany had failed in his attempt to have the secretary file the petition.

Secretary Rose held that the doors of his office closed at 6 o'clock on Saturday, which was the final day for filing petitions for the April 9 primary, and that he did not file the petition.

Tiffany has engaged attorneys, who state that mandamus proceedings will be brought against the secretary of state, unless Secretary Rose agrees to let the petition be filed. Attorneys for Tiffany contend that the secretary should have accepted the petition at any time up until midnight March 9.

Four candidates who had filed petitions with the secretary of state, asked leave to withdraw their names. They are John B. Harris, Granite City, Democrat, candidate for the nomination for congress in the twenty-second district; James F. Burns, Chicago, Democrat, candidate for the lower house from the twenty-ninth district; Thadeus Kowlowski, Chicago, Republican, candidate as member of lower house from twenty-seventh district; A. E. Smith, Mt. Carmel, Democrat, candidate for state senator in the forty-eight district.

The petitions of three candidates were received at the office Sunday and these were returned to the senders. Those who failed to get under the wire were G. J. Johnson, Chicago, Republican, candidate for nomination for the lower house from the twenty-sixth district; Elias S. Lloyd, Chicago, Prohibitionist, candidate for nomination for the lower house from the ninth district; George C. McCarty, Chicago, Democrat, candidate for nomination as state senator from the twelfth district.

Describing the allegations made by Len Small, Republican candidate for the nomination of governor, in his petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the certification of his name for first place on the ballot to the county clerks, as scandalous and impertinent, Secretary Rose, who is the principal defendant in the proceedings, to day filed his demurrer in the Sangamon county circuit court.

END OF STRIKE NEAR.

Lawrence, Mass., March 11.—That the end of the strike is near is to night the general feeling among labor leaders and citizens. At a conference Saturday the American Woolen company offered an average increase of 7½ and this was generally satisfactory to the strikers' committee, but there was a disagreement over details.

The strikers insist that they will make no agreement with the American oolen company alone, but will demand a general settlement in all of the mills. This, it is believed, will naturally follow.

NO TRAINS RUNNING.

Denver, March 11.—No Union Pacific or Rock Island railroad trains arrived or departed from here today on account of a severe snow storm.

VETERAN DEAD.

Mason City, Iowa, March 11.—William Boyce, veteran engineer, was killed to day in jumping from a runaway switch engine.

EVERGLADES LAND INVESTIGATION

SENATOR CROSS-EXAMINED BY COMMITTEE.

Fletcher Assumes Responsibility For Report Which Was Published as Senate Document—Other News From National Capital.

Washington, March 11.—The spectacle of a United States senator being cross-examined by a committee of the house drew a large audience today to the Florida everglades land investigation, when Senator Fletcher of Florida was testifying.

Under a vigorous examination by Representative Moss, Senator Fletcher assumed responsibility for the report on the everglades which was published as a senate document.

The senator said he had not asked the department of agriculture for material for the report but testified that for its preparation he had employed Thomas Will, who was interested in the sale of Florida lands. Senator Fletcher said he had used a report by J. O. Wright, once connected with the department of agriculture, but now employed by the state of Florida, in preference to a revision submitted by C. G. Elliott, because it appeared to him that Elliot was taking credit for Wright's work. Senator Fletcher said he had sustained Wright's objections to Elliott's report, after Wright had left the department of agriculture and gone to work for the state of Florida.

It was Elliott's dismissal from the department which led to the present investigation. The department claims he was dismissed for technical illegal transfer of departmental funds. Those who forced the inquiry claim he was dismissed at the instance of land operators who thought his reports on the everglades unfavorable to their plans.

Profit For Steel Combine.

Figures, intended to show that subsidiary railroad companies, allied with the United States steel corporation, by high freight rates, earn large dividends which go to stockholders of the steel corporation and that such railroads are an advantage to the steel trust over competing concerns that own none, were submitted to the Stanley investigating committee today by Guy M. Freer, a traffic expert. Statistics presented by Mr. Freer show high freight rates on ore roads and large iron railroads. The Duluth, Misabee & Northern railroad, he showed, in 1910, made a return of more than 240 per cent. on its capital stock, when the ore rate from the Minnesota mines to Lake Superior was eighty cents a ton. The Pittsburgh Steamship company, another steel corporation subsidiary which carries ore down the lakes, it was shown, made large earnings.

"The profit to the steamship company in the handling of the ore was 24½ cents a ton," Mr. Freer declared. "That profit on the total capitalization of $20,500,000 is sixteen per cent."

Mr. Freer presented other statistics to support his allegations concerning freight charges on roads allied with the steel corporation.

FIRST CUMMINS' DELEGATES.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 11.—The first delegates to the national Republican convention at Chicago to be instructed for Senator Albert B. Cummins for the presidential nomination, will be chosen to morrow, when the seventh Iowa district Republican convention is held here This was the indication to night, based on the fact that the majority of the county delegations in the district have been instructed for the senator. Harvey Ingram, editor of the Register and Leader, will be temporary chairman of the convention.

AUXILIARY RECEIVER.

Springfield, March 11.—Joseph W. McIntosh of Monmouth, Ill., was this afternoon appointed auxiliary receiver for the properties of the Western Stone Ware company of Portland, Me., in the southern district of Illinois, of the United States district court. The properties consist of two plants at Macomb, two at Monmouth and one at Whitehall. The apopintment was made on the suit of Philip Elting, owner of 1200 shares of stock in the company, and the endorser of notes to the amount of $50,000. The Western Stoneware company is capitalized at $1,750,000.

SCOIALIST VICTORY.

Burlington, Iowa, March 11.—The Socialists today swept Burlington, landing their candidate, Schurmann in the lead for mayor in the city primaries under the commission plan. They also got two men on the ticket for councilman. Mayor Cross was defeated by 54 votes by Frank Norton for a place on the ballot and Councilmen Bock and Funck were overcome by opposition. Councilmen Canney and Scheurs secured a place on the ticket.

Many Decapitations.

London, March 12.—That a thousand decapitations have taken place at Peking and Tientsin in the last week is officially admitted, says a Peking dispatch to the Daily Telegraph. Only the brush of Gustav Dore could do justice to the hideous picture the streets present. Bodies lie in groups in agonized attitudes, the heads, literally hacked off, lying where they rolled. The very mules and ponies snort and refuse to approach the terrible objects, over which the rabble stands and gloats.

MANCHU TROOPS PROTECT PEKING

LEGATION QUARTERS CLOSED AND CANNON ON WALLS.

Stories of Anarchy, Atrocities and Suffering Come From Northern Provinces—Wealthy Chinese Remain in Legation Quarter.

Peking, China, March 11.—Armed peace holds sway throughout the city. The legation quarter is closed and cannon have been mounted on the walls. Yesterday, the old style troops started diorders, and were ordered to day to proceed to Tungho. They tore down the Republican flags a few hours before the inauguration of Yuan Shi Kai, as president of the republic. Many natives followed suit, and for a time, the authorities were confronted with a serious situation. The Manchu garrison and part of the third division are now acting as a body-guard to President Yuan.

The Manchus hold the site of the destroyed gate to the imperial city with Maxims, permitting only merchants to enter. Shooting occurs occasionally and decapitations daily. Frequently, at night time, fires are seen in the hills from the city walls; probably the houses of farmers being looted. Few shops are open and the wealthy Chinese remain in the legation quarter. If the leading men were not able to take refuge behind a foreign gun whenever trouble occurred, peace might come more quickly.

For the last several weeks repititions of the stories of anarchy, atrocities and sufferings have been received from all the northern provinces. The legations are of the opinion that the Nanking cabinet is not capable of re-establishing order, unless the Republic armies are brought to the north, and question the cabinet's ability to assemble sufficient force for that purpose.

TALKATIVEGOVERNORS

Governor Deneen Pays Respects to That Brand of Executives of So-Called Progressive States.

Belevidere, Ill., March 11.—Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois, in an address here to night said:

"I believe the time is ripe for me, in behalf of the great state of Illinois, to pay my respects to the talkative governors of some of the so called progressive states, who have by inference, used Illinois for disparaging comparisons.

"A certain governor of a comparatively new state recently traveled the country over and spoke at length on the ease with which the laws enacted by the legislature were meeting all conditions and problems within his commonwealth. I took the trouble to look up some information regarding this 'progressive' state. I found it had a population of only 400,000 and contained within its borders only one important industry.

"Illinois, on the other hand, has a larger population than such sovereign countries as Holland, Chile, Argentine or Portugal. It is the home of vast industries, manufacturing and agricultural. New enterprises are sprouting up every day, the population is growing by leaps and the consequent problems gather in great force between the sessions of the legislature. But, in spite of the tremendous difficulties which confront the law makers of this state, the laws we have enacted and enforced make the statute books of some of these 'progressive' states look like joke books.

"That is my answer to certain governors who spend perhaps one month of the year attending to the state's business and the other eleven months traveling about giving advice to the rest of the states in the union."

THE PACKERS' CASE.

Judge Will Give Decision This Morning.

Chicago, March 11.—The government attorneys to day concluded their argument on the motion of the defense to have Judge Carpenter take the packers' case from the jury and discharge the ten defendants. To morrow morning the defense will close its argument in support of the motion and it is expected that Judge Carpenter will give his decision without delay.

District Attorney James H. Wilkerson, Special Counsel James M. Sheen and Special Counsel Pierce Butler occupied the entire day in presenting their arguments in opposition to the granting of the motion. They reviewed the evidence at length and declared that the government had conclusively proved its case against the ten defendants charged with criminal violation of the Sherman law.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATINO.

St. Louis, March 11.—Members of the council of Religious Education met to night in the first session of the Religious Education association's ninth annual convention. All departments will be in session to morrow.

ALLEGED BASE BALL TRUST

ANOTHER INVESTIGATION FOR CONGRESSMEN.

Resolution to That Effect Introduced in Congress by Representative Gallagher of Illinois—Views of Different Managers.

Washington, March 11.—A congressional investigation of the "baseball trust, the most audacious and autocratic trust in the country," was proposed in a resolution introduced by Representative Gallagher, of Illinois, to day. The measure would create a special committee of seven representatives to inquire of the department of justice "what steps have been taken against the baseball trust, as against other illegal combinations," to subpoenae witnesses and employ assistants. It accused the "baseball trust" of presuming "to control the baseball game, its officials, announcing daily through the press the dictates of a governing commission, how competition is stifled, territory and games apportioned, prices fixed when minors must pay to witness the sport, how men are enslaved and forced to accept salaries and terms or be forever barred from playing."

Mr. Gallagher said the department of justice knew that there was such a trust under the law, and that he would confer with the department in a day or two.

Herrmann Thinks It Joke.

Cincinnati, March 11.—Congressman Galagher's resolution for an investigation of the so-called baseball trust was characterized as a joke to day by August Herrmann, president of the national baseball commission. Herrmann declared that from the nature of the game there could be no baseball trust. "The commission does not fix prices. Different prices are charged in different cities," he said.

Glad to Have Inquiry.

Chicago, March 11.—When informed of the Galagher resolution to investigate baseball, President B. B. Johnson of the American league, said: "We would be glad to have an investigation. There is no baseball trust, and competition is not stifled. Any one who desires is welcome to get in the game.

"So far as men being enslaved is concerned, a large number of the players are drawing salaries in excess of what is paid to congressmen. That does not look much like enslavement."

President T. M. Chivington of the American Association of professional baseball clubs, believed the resolution is based on lack of information to the extent, purpose and operation of what is known as organized baseball, and added that "there is no violation of federal, state or municipal law in the operation of organized baseball."

John T. Powers, president of the Columbian Baseball league, which has planned to put ball teams in a number of cities where the major leagues now play, declared that he had taken no part in causing the presentation of the Gallagher resolution, that there had been no clash with the officials of organized baseball, and does not anticipate any strong attempt to bar his league out.

Lynch's Views.

New York, March 11.—"So far as the National league of baseball clubs is concerned, we invite investigation," President Lynch said. He added: "There is absolutely nothing savoring of a trust in our league. We do not in any manner stfle or attempt to stifle competition." He approved what President Johnson, of the American league, said about "enslaved players," adding. "Not alone do some of the players receive more money for their work than congressmen, but more than the average business man earns."

FASTER TWENTY DAYS.

Celebrated Finish by Eating Square Meal—In Good eHalth.

Dubuque, Iowa, March 11—Twenty days withot a bite to eat and nothing to drink except water, is the record tonight of L. C. Obsenreiter, a local business man. He celebrated the finish of his fast with a square meal in a down town hotel and said that he could perform the same feat again.

When Obsenreiter began his fast, he weighed 243 pounds, but to night he said he weighed 226 pounds, though not a white the worse off in point of health.

During his foodless period, Obsenreiter's daily diet consisted of six glasses of water and he kept up his work.

HONEYMOON TO PARIS, FRANCE

Mr. Joseph Pouyferrie Baylac and Miss Pearl Imboden Will Wed To Night—Expect to Leave in Month for Groom's Native Land.

Mr. Joseph Pouyferrie Baylac and Miss Pearl Imboden will be married this evening by Rev. F. A. McCarty at the Centenary parsonage on East State street. Mr. Baylac is the well known 'cellist, who came to this city last July to join Jeffries' concert band on its chautauqua tour and who has since made himself prominent in local musical circles. He is at present playing with Harold Johnson's orchestra and also appearing in solo work at the Majestic theater. The young lady, whom he is to wed, is ticket seller at the same theater. Although Mr. Baylac and his bride will not take any wedding trip immediately, it is their plan to go within a month or six weeks to Paris, France, his native city.

The wedding will, no doubt, come as a surprise to the many friends of the young people in this city, but all will unite in the extending of heartiest congratulations. Miss Imboden is a daughter of Mrs. Minnie Imboden, of East North street, and is a young lady of charming personality and many excellent qualities. She has spent her entire life in this city. She is a member of Central Christian church and one of the most active members of the Philathea circle.

Mr. Baylac is a Frenchman by birth and has spent but three years in this country. He is a son of Ernest Pouyferri Baylac, a prominent citizen and successful business man of Paris, France. Mr. Baylac was given a splendid education in Paris, graduating from the College of Henri IV and the Paris Conservatory. His success as a musician led him to go to other countries, where he played with some of the most famous orchestras. His musical tours have taken him through China, Japan and other countries beside the United States, where he has been for the past three years. On this continent Mr. Baylac held a successful engagement for one season with the San Carlo Grand Opera company, playing first 'cello in an orchestra of fifty-five pieces. As previously stated Mr. Baylac is from a splendid family, highly educated and is a young man of splendid character. He has a sister, who is a graduate in medicine, and another who is at the head of one of the large institutions of learning in Paris. Mr. Baylac, himself, can speak in six different languages.

The young people had not intended to be married at just this time; until this week, when Mr. Baylac received a letter from his father, in Paris, offering him strong inducements to return to Paris and take charge of a large hotel and theater. This Mr. Ba... ...ided to do and he expects to depart with his bride within a month or so for his native land. Whether the young people will remain in Paris is not definite, as Mr. Baylac said, last night, this country has great fascinations for him and much will also depend upon the wishes of his young wife.

The ceremony, which will take place this evening, will be witnessed by Harold Johnson, a very close friend of Mr. Baylac, and Mrs. Miles Kehoe, a sister of the bride-to-be.

Building for Permanency

Everybody likes to build, but nobody likes "repair jobs." They inevitably represent an additional investment without any addition to value. That point is worth digesting.

When you build, whatever you build, you like to build "for keeps."

Some people change their minds about styles in building; the same as wearables; our tastes develop and result in changes in our wants, but nobody changes his or her mind as to wishing to get the greatest possible endurance or wear out of the things they buy, and especially is this true of building investments.

Those who build for time have a care in the selection of lumber. We had this in mind in buying our extensive lumber stock and we would be pleased with a chance to give you a figure on whatever lumber bill you may have in mind. The prices named will be satisfactory and the lumber qualities will more than meet your expectations.

He told of a visit to the U. S. battleship North Dakota a short time ago and since that time the U. The speaker emphasized the fact that the young people of today were living in a world that was advancing at a lively clip.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

FUNERALS

Andre.

The funeral services of Julius Andre were conducted at 9 o'clock Monday from the Church of Our Savior, Rev. Father O'Donnell officiating. There was a large number of friends present to pay a last tribute of respect to one held in high esteem. Scott of South Main street.

The remains were laid to rest in Calvary cemetery and the bearers were Robert Lurton, Daniel Moy, Thomas Dyer, Daniel Keating, John Devlin and John Petrie.

Pyatt.

Impressive funeral services for Mrs. John C. Pyatt were held Sunday afternoon at the Central Christian church and the immense gathering of relatives and friends was a splendid token of the love and esteem, in which this good woman was held in the community, where she had spent her best years. Aside from neighbors and friends here, many from Virginia and Petersburg were present to pay a last tribute of respect and to speak words of sympathy to the bereaved family.

The service began with the singing of "Softly Now the Light of Day" by the Orphean quartet, composed of Luther Smith, Dr. C. B. Magill, Earl Richardson and Walter Vieira, after which Rev. Clyde Darsie, who had the services in charge, led in a fervent prayer and then read from the fourth chapter of I Thessalonians. The quartet next sang, with great pathos and tenderness "Nearer My Home."

Rev. Mr. Darsie paid a beautiful tribute to the Christian character of Mrs. Pyatt, speaking of her as a friend, as a church member and as a mother. He began his address, however, by pointing out that death was looked at from two sides. It is viewed by humanity and by the Almighty. We see in it sadness, darkness and gloom, but God sees a bright side. He said that he would have the heavy hearted look upon death from God's standpoint, as being a birthday to eternity. The thought was especially adaptable in the case of Mrs. Pyatt, whose friends and dear ones knew by her life and character that she long ago had prepared a place for herself in the Eternal Kingdom.

The singing of "We Shall Meet By and By," by the quartet, concluded the service at the church and the cortege moved to Jacksonville cemetery where interment was made in the family lot. The bearers were J. W. Lane, George Blair, L. W. Chambers, W. L. Fay, Albert Berry and J. H. Rayhill, Jr.

There was a great profusion of beautiful flowers, which came from a wide circle of relatives and friends and from the different societies in the church, to which Mrs. Pyatt belonged. The flowers were cared for by Misses Josephine Pyatt and Jeanette Leck of this city, Mrs. H. P. Moulton and Miss Caroline Cheaney of Petersburg, and Mrs. Gertrude Stainsforth of Lynnville.

Among those to attend the funeral, from out of the city were a son, Rev. Lynn Pyatt, of Lexington, Ky.; Edgar S. and Dr. William J. Cheaney, brothers, with their families, from Petersburg; Mrs. E. M. Kreigh, of Springfield, a sister of Mr. Pyatt; Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Pyatt, Chicago; Mrs. Charles Chance, Springfield; Miss Mollie Redding, Tallula; Andrew and John S. Hurle, Mr. and Mrs. Al Nance and daughter, Petersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Archer, of Sangamon county, all cousins of Mrs. Pyatt.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE.

People Notice it—Drive Them Off With Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pimples will vanish after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Nothing ever cleansed the blood, the bowels and the liver like Olive Tablets.

Olive Tablets are the only successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Olive Tablets do all that calomel does and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are made of pure vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with diver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Try them. Take one nightly for a week. Then look at yourself in the glass and see how you feel.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

Filled With Scenery of Wonderful and Reckless Grandeur.

Glacier National park, it may be said without fear of contradiction, is the most wonderful natural park in the world. It comprises approximately 915,000 acres in northwestern Montana and embraces more than 1,400 square miles of the Rocky mountains.

This vast park is bounded on the north by the Canadian line, on the east by the Blackfoot Indian reservation, on the west by the north fork of the Flathead river and on the south by the main line of the Great Northern railway, by which alone it can be reached.

Within its great area are 900,000 acres of wild land that has never been trod by the surveyor. It is filled with scenery of reckless grandeur. Within its confines are more than sixty glaciers and many mountain peaks clad in the eternal snows. Lake McDonald, another of its wonders, is 3,150 feet above sea level and surrounded by lofty mountains.

Avalanche basin, a most remarkable U shaped valley, is another of the endless works of Mother Nature to be found in this great national playground. The entire scope of it, in fact, is laden with things to attract the interest of the tourist and student of science as well.—New York Times.

LONG BUSINESS CAREER IS CLOSED

Joseph Heinl Died at Midnight Monday—Had Been Resident of Jacksonville More Than Forty Years.

Joseph Heinl, long prominent in the business life of Jacksonville, died at midnight, Monday, at his residence on Greenwood avenue. Last Thursday Mr. Heinl suffered an attack of a paralytic type and his condition at once became grave. Monday morning, for a short time, he seemed to improve slightly, but a change came shortly afterward and at midnight "God's finger touched him and he slept."

Joseph Heinl was born January 13, 1838, near Eger on the border line, between Bavaria and Austria, and so he was 74 years of age at the time of his death. With his parents and three brothers he came to Toledo, Ohio, in 1856, and four years later he located at Terre Haute, Ind., where he engaged in business as a florist and nurseryman. In 1870 he came to Jacksonville, and last Sunday marked the forty-second anniversary of his business career in this city. When he came to Jacksonville he established a florist and nursery business at the present site of the Heinl greenhouse and had his residence there. Later, for a number of years, he had greenhouses on South Main street, and the family residence was on the same property. Subsequently a substantial residence was erected on Greenwood avenue and the business was also transferred to that location.

Mr. Heinl belonged to a family of florists, all of his brothers being engaged in that business and he was particularly successful. He was a charter member of the American Florists association and was widely known for the superior products of his greenhouses. With advancing years he determined to surrender some of his cares and he therefore incorporated the business, associating with him his daughter and three of his sons. For forty-two years Mr. Heinl has been a Jacksonville business man and so he takes rank as one of the very oldest. Beginning in a somewhat humble way by tireless energy and the use of the best methods he built up a business which with passing years became of large importance and he took a permanent place among the substantial and successful citizens of Jacksonville.

Mr. Heinl was a man of strong character. He was plain of speech, simple and direct in all that he said and did. These characteristics marked his everyday life and without pretence of any kind he maintained high ideals of honesty, integrity and right living.

In June, 1866, Mr. Heinl was married in Toledo to Miss Mary Elizabeth Francis, who survives him, with the following children: Frank J. of this city, Harry of Toledo, O., Miss Adele, Edward D., William, Orlando B. and Ernest B., all of this city. There are two brothers surviving, George A. of Toledo and John G. of Terre Haute, and two grandchildren, Lorna and Joseph Lawrence, children of Harry Heinl. One son, Albert, died in 1907.

Mr. Heinl had long been identified with lodge life in Jacksonville. He was a member of Harmony lodge No. 3, A. F. & A. M., Jacksonville chapter, R. & S. M., Jacksonville council, Hospitaler Commandery, K. T., and Urania lodge, I. O. O. F.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Recently she had to take to her bed and from that time she failed rapidly, passing away Monday morning.

Mrs. Golden was born in Nicholas county, Kentucky, seventy-one years ago last August. She was the youngest sister of the late James McKay of this city. In the year 1864 she was united in marriage to Capt. Abram Golden, who was during the civil war a member of the 38th regiment Ill. Vol., and who died 18 years ago. She is survived by two sons, E. Mrs. Giles is supposed to have died from apoplexy and on account of the suddenness of her death an inquest was held. Coroner Skinner empanneled the following jury: E. G. Laboyteaux, foreman; J. J. Brennan, Charles Laney, L. L. Jacobs, Ira M. Mapes and W. L. Brown.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence. Interment will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

Mrs. Emily Hinchee, of Newmansville, Ill., was in the city yesterday enroute to Carrollton, where Mr. Hinchee has purchased a farm and where they will make their home.

DEATH RECORD

Soby.

William Soby received the sad news Monday morning of the death of his only child, Charles, in Houston, Texas, at 12:30 Sunday night. The deceased had been suffering with some strange ailment for several months and the doctors were somewhat puzzled over it. He was at his place of business a part of the time and laid up a part of the time. A consultation of seven physicians resulted in recommending an operation and that fact induced his mother to go down. She wrote her husband Friday that when she arrived Charles was not looking bad quite as she had expected. The doctors decided on trying the operation Sunday morning and the fatal termination is known but no particulars.

Mr. Soby was born in Jacksonville, Sept. 20, 1875, and enjoyed the usual advantages of the schools of this place. For a time he was in charge of the gatemen on the Chicago & Alton railroad but left that position to enter the employ of Goodbar, Forrest & Co., wholesale dealers in hats and gloves, and remained with them twelve years, when he joined himself to two others connected with the force and went to Houston, Texas, where they started a similar establishment about two years ago and were favored with success from the start.

He was married twelve years ago to Miss Etta Johnson, of Pearl, Ill., and was the father of one daughter, Vivian, 11 years of age. He is survived by his wife and daughter and parents of this city.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Allan.

Mrs. Laura A. Kellogg, residing on Grove street, is in receipt of word announcing the death of her aunt, Miss Sarah Allan who passed away Sunday at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The death occurred in Guntersville, Ala., where the deceased has made her home with a niece for the past five years. Miss Allan had been ill but a few days, though no details were given in regard to her illness and death. Miss Allan was born in Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 31, 1823, and she had at the time of her demise arrived at the age of 88 years, 5 months and 10 days. She was a daughter of Rev. John Allan, a Scotch Presbyterian minister. At the request of her father, just previous to his death, Miss Allan and her sister, who afterwards became Mrs. M. P. Ayers, came north to make their home with Mrs. D. A. Smith. Shortly after her arrival in the north Miss Allan was engaged in teaching in the school in Carbondale, but in the year 1855 she gave up teaching and came to this city and made her home with her sister, Mrs. M. P. Ayers. She was among the earliest members of the Sorosis society, taking an active part in the proceedings of the society and after leaving this city five years ago for a southern home she retained an active part in the society and in her turn had papers in readiness for presentation before the members. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and was a strong believer and promoter of the better living, and had many warm friends in this city where she so long resided. She was the last member of her father's family.

Interment was made Monday in the family burial lot beside the remains of the parents in the cemetery near Huntsville, Ala.

Shanahan.

Patrick Shanahan, a member of the grocery firm of Shanahan & Shanahan, has received word of the death of his father, James Shanahan, who died in Limerick, County Clare, Ireland, February 13, at the age of 75 years, following an illness of several months.

About five years ago Mr. Shanahan went over to Ireland and made his parents a visit, at which time he promised to return again at the end of five years. The promised visit was made by Mr. Shanahan last June and at that time he found his father in very poor health. Mr. Shanahan was a man held in high regard for his upright life and character.

He leaves three daughters, Mrs. John McGinn and Mrs. William Flynn and Mrs. Dunn all of Ireland and one son, Patrick, of this city. He also leaves two brothers, Patrick Shanahan, who resides southwest of Jacksonville, and Michael of Minnesota. Three brothers, John, Dennis and William, now dead, were residents of this city. Mrs. James Dumphey, who resides on Wolcott street, is a sister of the deceased.

The letter which Mr. Shanahan received also stated that his mother was dangerously ill.

Strang.

Mrs. Edward Strang, nee Minnie Wright, of White Hall, died very suddenly Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock from uremic poisoning. She was complaining early in the morning of having pains in her head and neck, but nothing serious was thought at the time. Later in the morning her condition grew worse and the family physician was summond, but medical aid availed nothing to save her life.

Mrs. Strang was widely known in her home town and throughout Morgan county, where she was born and reared. She possessed a sweet disposition and was ever ready to help in every cause which meant for the betterment of the community. She was a member of the R. N. A. and of the Domestic Science society of White Hall and of the Methodist church of that place. Perhaps no woman in the White Hall community had more friends than Mrs. Strang, who learned to love her for herself alone. Her sudden death has caused a wide spread of sorrow and the sympathy of all will go out to the loved ones in their great loss.

She was the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Wright of Jacksonville, and was born on the old home place, one-half mile east of Murrayville, March 3, 1871, having just passed her 41st birthday. Here she spent her girlhood days and attended the public schools of Murrayville. Later she supplemented her course at the academy in this city, and for two or three years was engaged in teaching. She was married Sept. 25, 1890, to Edward Strang and since that time has resided in White Hall.

Besides her husband she is survived by two sons and three daughters, Donald, John Russell, Helen, Eloise and Eliza. She also leaves her parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Wright, one brother and sister, C. Justus Wright of Murrayville, Mrs. W. R. T. Masters of this city, also two half-sisters, Mrs. J. E. Ash of Pontiac and Mrs. Henry Bell of Manchester.

The funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the M. E. church in White Hall, in charge of Rev. Hy S. Alkire of Jacksonville, assisted by Rev. Albert H. Flagg of White Hall. Interment will be made in the White Hall cemetery.

Brown.

Mrs. Charles Brown of Roodhouse died Monday evening at 9:30 o'clock at Passavant hospital. Mrs. Brown had been ill for six weeks and her condition became quite serious yesterday so that Dr. J. W. Hairgrove of this city was called to Roodhouse in consultation with the attending physician of that place. It was found that Mrs. Brown was suffering from peritonitis and the physicians deemed it best that she be brought to Passavant hospital for an operation. Her condition was very critical and she had no sooner reached the hospital, than she passed away.

Her maiden name was Miss Ardella Pearl Farmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Farmer, who reside three miles south of Prentice, where she was born February 25, 1887, having just passed her 25th birthday. She was married June 14, 1905, to Charles Brown, of the Prentice neighborhood. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Ashland and a few months later moved to Roodhouse, where they have since resided. Mrs. Brown was a woman whom every one loved, being possessed of a kind heart and cheerful disposition. Although she had suffered intensely during her illness she complained but little and felt hopeful that some day should would be strong and well. Her sudden death comes as a great great shock to her husband and family and all will miss her greatly.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one daughter, Colletta, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Farmer, and two sisters, Mrs. George Flynn and Miss Frances Farmer, both of Prentice.

Mrs. Farmer has been with her daughter during her entire illness and Mr. Farmer went down Monday and will come together with Dr. Hairgrove, accompanied Mrs. Brown to Jacksonville.

The remains were taken to Reynolds undertaking establishment and will be sent this morning at 6 o'clock over the Alton to Prentice. The funeral services will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of Rev. C. E. French of Tallula, with interment in the Yatesville cemetery.

Flowers.

Watson Flowers, father of Mrs. J. D. Staley of this city, died Saturday afternoon at his home in Laomi, after one week's illness of pneumonia, aged 67 years. He was born in Plainsville, O., in 1845, and when 12 years old came to Illinois. In 1866 he married Miss Elizabeth McClain, who died twelve years ago. For thirty years Mr. Flowers resided in Loami, where he followed the occupation of a blacksmith. He leaves two sons, Guy and Norman Flowers of Loami; two daughters, Mrs. J. D. Staley of Jacksonville and Mrs. Charles Fox of Springfield; also two sisters and four brothers. Mr. Flowers belonged to the Masons and to the Modern Woodmen.

Death was due to heart trouble. She had resided in that community since 1854. Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Daubard of Pleasant Plains and four son, William of this city, A. E., of Ohio, Ray of Greenville and Edward of Chicago.

Closing Out All of Our Hosiery

The Watson Glasgow Co. (the makers of Kenlock Hose) have retired from business and we cannot in consequence secure orders.

This means that in a short time we would have only a broken stock of sizes and numbers.

This means the closing out of each and every pair of hose in the house.

The "Kinlock" we have always considered one of the best on the market.

We are sorry to give it up, but there is another that we want to tell you about later on—but at present we want to get rid of the "Kinlock."

Our Hosiery stock is now complete in every particular. The spring and summer numbers are here in Silk, Lisle, Gauze Lisle—all colors and sizes. Priced for this closing out sale:

Peacocks' Feathers.

Peacocks' feathers have been handed down to us from the ancient days of mythology as emblematical of treachery, evil and misfortune. The origin of this strange superstition is founded upon the following classical story: Osiris, king of Egypt, upon starting on his Indian expedition left his queen, Isis, regent, with Argus, his minister, as her chief adviser. Argus, with his hundred eyes, or, rather, his spies, soon made himself so formidable and powerful that he seized the queen regent, shut her up in a strong castle and proclaimed himself king of Egypt. Mercury was sent against him with a strong army, took him captive and cut off his head, whereupon Juno metamorphosed him into a peacock and set his spies in his tail. From this legend and the various additions made to it from time to time the belief has arisen that it is unlucky to have peacocks' feathers inside a house.

MORE LAND LEASED.

The Ohio Oil and Gas Company Acquires Large Acreage.

The Ohio Oil and Gas company has secured several more leases for land on which to operate for oil and gas. Monday the following leases were recorded in the circuit clerk's office:

W. J. Cockin, 600 acres.
S. C. Cockin, 646 acres.
T. E. Cockin, 195 acres.
W. B. Brown, 756 acres.
Edward W. Brown, 1,008 acres.

All this land lays to the east of Jacksonville in the vicinity of Brown's Crossing and Alexander. Some weeks ago the Ohio Oil and Gas company moved their equipment to the E. W. Brown property and have been drilling, whenever the weather permitted. They have the drill down now about 800 feet. It is the intention of the company to make all these wells deep. One of the oil men is credited with the statement that when spring fully arrives there will be a renewed activity in the oil region and all those interested intend to probe deep in old mother earth and to leave no stone unturned to know the exact extent of the oil and gas regions.

That Easy Three Hundred.

Soon after Senator John Sharp Williams arrived in Washington some years ago as a member of the house of representatives a man on the staff of a magazine approached him with a request for an interview of a thousand words on the outlook for the Democratic party. Reflecting that at that time the outlook was anything but bright, Williams said:

"I'll dictate it to my stenographer and mail it to you."

A month later the magazine man stepped up to Williams and handed him a check for $300.

"Is that for me?" asked Williams quizzically.

"Yes, sir."

"What for?"

"For that article you wrote for us on the outlook for Democracy."

"And this is authorship!" mused the lawmaker, smiling. "Well, it's the only easy money I ever made. What's the use of being a patriot anyhow?"—Popular Magazine.

WILL BE NO DEBA TE IN PRAIRIE LEAGUE

Action of Millikin and Wesleyan Cancels Inter-collegiate Contest.

There will be no debates this spring in the Prairie state debating league, of which Illinois college, Millikin university and Illinois Wesleyan university are the members. Prof. Carl E. Robinson of Illinois received a letter last week from each of the other colleges, stating that they absolutely refused to debate the Home Rule question, which was the one proposed by Millikin at the meeting in Decatur, last October, and unanimously agreed to by the institutions represented. The first information of any desire on the part of Millikin or Wesleyan to wish for a change in the arrangements was received on February 1, which was certainly a very late date. The debate was to have been held this month and the local debaters had already done considerable work on the question, when the other members of the league first filed their objections.

The Debating association of Illinois college held a meeting Monday and the matter was presented before the members by Prof. Robinson. The local debaters regret very much that the debate is to be canceled, but by the action of Millikin and Wesleyan no other course seems possible.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

TAFT MADE STRONG SPEECH AT TOLEDO

PRESIDENT DISCUSSED RECALL OF JUDGES AND JUDICIAL DECISIONS.

With Clear Reasoning He Pointed Out Fallicies and Dangers of Proposed Policies—Made No Mention of Roosevelt.

Toledo, March 8.—President Taft spoke here to night upon the recall of judges and the recall of judicial decisions. His remarks could be interpreted as a reply to the recent speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, at Columbus, at which the colonel advocated those policies, although the president did not refer to Colonel Roosevelt or his speech, by word or inference.

Utterly without merit or utility, and reactionary instead of progressive; crude, revolutionary, fitful and unstable were the terms in which the president referred to the recall method of reversing judicial constructions of the constitution.

"I have examined this proposed method of reversing judicial decisions on constitutional questions with care," President Taft said. "I do not hesitate to say that it lays the axe at the foot of the tree of well ordered freedom and subjects the guaranties of life, liberty and property without remedy to the fitful impulse of a temporary majority of an electorate."

The president began with a reference to the development of representative government in the United States. The best government, he said, and that which was most certain to provide for and protect the rights of every class, was that government in which every class had a voice.

"Government by unanimous vote of the electorate," he said, "is impossible and therefore the majority of the electorate must rule. We find that government by the people, is therefore, under our present system, government by a majority of one-fourth of those whose rights and happiness are to be affected by the course and conduct of the government. This is the nearest to a government by the whole people we have everh ad. Women's suffrage will change this and it is doubtless coming as soon as the electorate can be certain that most women desire it and will assume its burden and responsibility.

"It was long ago recognized that direct action of temporary majority of the existing electors must be limited by fundamental law; that is by a constitution intended to protect the individual and the minority of the electorate and the non-voting majority of the people against the unjust or the arbitrary action of the majority of the electorate."

Quoted From Webster.

President Taft quoted at length from Daniel Webster's speeches on the necessity of maintaining checks and balances in a constitution to secure the guaranty of individual rights and well ordered liberty and then led up to his discussion of the judiciary.

"It is a complete misunderstanding of our form of government," the president said, "or any kind of government that exalts justice and righteousness, to assume that judges are bound to follow the will of a majority of an electorate on any subject of the issue for their decision."

The judiciary, he said, was not representative in the sense that the executive and the legislators were, whether judges be appointed or elected, because they must enforce the law as they found it.

"In many cases before the judges that temporary majority is a real party to the controversy to be decided," the president continued. "It may be seeking to deprive an individual or a minority of a right secured by the fundamental law. In such a case if the judges were mere representatives or agents of the majority to carry out its will they would lose their judicial character entirely and the so-called administration of justice would be a farce."

At this point the president repeated his former declaration that the judicial system was not as perfect as it might be made and called attention to his speeches and messages to congress urging reform in procedure. He spoke of delays and the costs of litigation.

Denounced Recall of Judges.

The president then took up the proposed remedies, first the recall of judges and later the recall of judicial decisions. Than the recall of judges he declared, there could not be a system better adapted to deprive the judiciary of "that independence without which the liberty and other rights of the individual cannot be maintained against the government and the majority."

If the impeachment were too cumbersome a proceeding to apply to corrupt judges, he proposed a tribunal for the removal of judges for cause.

Of the recall of judicial decision, President Taft said in part:

This is a remarkable suggestion and one which is so contrary to anything in government heretofore proposed that it is hard to give to it the serious consideration which it deserves because of its advocates and of the conditions under which it is advanced.

"What this recall of decisions will amount to if applied to constitutional questions is that there will be a suspension of the constitution to enable a temporary majority of the electorate to enforce a popular but invalid act."

President Taft pointed out that the right of habeas corpus might be affected, or that a rich corporation seeking privileges in the development of a state—and he cited Alaska—might use such a condition to advantage.

Consistency Impossible.

"A most serious objection to the recall of decisions is that it destroys all probability of consistency in constitutional interpretation. The majority which sustains one law is not the majority which comes to consider another and the obligation of consistency of popular decision is one which would sit most lightly on each recurring electorate and the operation of the system would result in suspension of application of constitutional guaranties according to popular whim.

"We would have then a system of suspending the constitution to meet special instances. But the main argument used to sustain such a popular review of judicial decisions is that if the people are competent to establish a constitution they are competent to interpret it and that this recall of decisions is nothing but the exercise of the power of interpretation.

"This is clearly a fallacious argument. The approval of general principles in a constitution on one hand and the interpretation of a statute and consideration of its probable operation in a particular case and its possible infringement of a general principle on the other hand, are very different things.

"Finally, I ask what is the necessity for such a crude revolutionary, fitful and unstable way of reversing judicial constructions of the constitution. Why if the construction is wrong can it not be righted by constitutional amendment?

"An answer made to this is that the same judges would construe the amendment and defeat the popular will as in the first instance. This assumes dishonesty and a gross violation of their oaths of duty on the part of the judges, a hypothesis utterly untenable.

"I agree that we are making progress and ought to make progress in the shaping of governmental action to secure greater equality of opportunity, to destroy the undue advantage of special privilege and of accumulated capital, and to remove obstructions to the pursuit of human happiness; and in working out these difficult problems we may possibly have, from time to time, to limit or narrow the breadth of constitutional guaranties in respect of property by amendment."

YATES AND SMALL AT LOGGERHEADS.

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

Springfield, Ill.—A breach of political courtesy is charged in a letter Richard Yates has sent to Republicans of Sangamon county, and it is thought open hostilities between the Yates and Lorimer forces are about to start.

In his letter to the partymen of Sangamon appealing for support at the primary April 9, Yates says:

"It is not my intention to invade the home district of Govenor Deneen in Chicago, and I am assuming his leaders concede Sangamon to me. Another candidate, however, my old friend, Len Small of Kankakee, has specifically notified me by letter that he feels it his duty to contest Sangamon county with me.

"I greatly regret this; I proposed to Mr. Small some time ago that I keep out of his county and he out of mine. I thought that was fair. Small declines my proposition. His leader in this county is Richard M. Sullivan. I have told these gentlemen that for every 500 votes they will take away from me they will arouse 2,500 in my behalf. Will not the Republicans of Sangamon county assist me to make this prediction good?"

Sullivan, whom Yates charges with leading the Small forces here, was a leader in the Yates organization four years ago, resigning the position of sales agent of the state board of prison industries under Governor Deneen to go with the executive's rival. Yates carried Sangamon county by a large majority over Deneen in 1902.

Physical Director Brewer of the Y. M. C. A. has planned to introduce indoor baseball as the prime sport at the association for the spring months and the first game will be played to night between two teams, the batteries of which will be: Littler and German; Newman and Wells. If there are other teams in the city which would be interested in forming a league, Director Brewer would be glad to confer with them at the office of the Y. M. C. A.

CHANGE THEIR MIND

Senate Confirms Pitney and Then Set Aside Action for Further Consideration.

Washington, March 8.—The senate to day confirmed President Taft's nomination of Mahlon Pitney, chancellor of the state of New Jersey to succeed the ate Associate Justice Harlan on the supreme bench, and then set aside its action for further consideration because of opposition to Chancellor Pitney which developed in the executive session. The discussion was sufficient to arouse friends of Chancellor Pitney and to make some of them apprehensive that the nomination might be rejected. His sponsors, however, expressed the belief that he would be confirmed very soon.

After the nomination had been confirmed Senator Bacon suggested that it be held up until Senator Culberson was present. Senator Culberson, who has been inquiring into the decisions made by the chancellor came into the chamber a moment afterward and joined in the debate.

Senator Culberson called attention to Chancellor Pitney's decision in what is known as the glass bottle blowers' case, that of the George Jonas Glass company against the Glass Bottle Blowers' association of the United States. The lively discussion that followed was about that decision. In that case Chancellor Pitney, speaking for the majority of the court, sustained an injunction restraining the bottle blowers from coercing or persuading other workmen to break contracts with employers or from interfering in any way with persons willing to work or from picketing strikers or enforcing boycotts at places where employes had struck.

The court held that the act relating to persons who combine or encourage others to combine does not legitimatize an invasion of private rights nor prevent the party injured from having full redress. A dissenting opinion by Judge Garrettson disagreeing with the injunction against workmen who possibly persuade employes not under contract to leave employment was read.

Both Senators Briggs and Martine of New Jersey spoke in behalf of Chancellor Pitney. Senator Shivley and other senators said they wanted to know more about Chancellor Pitney's decisions. Finally it was agreed to defer action, and the nomination may come up again to morrow.

STATEMENT BY LA FOLLETTE.

Personal Attacks Should Have No Place in Present Campaign.

Madison, Wis., March 8.—"In the presence of great problems, personal attacks on candidates should have no place," is the declaration in a statement issued by Senator La Follette to day. This was called forth by reports that Col. Roosevelt urged La Follette as "the ideal man to make the fight against President Taft." Mr. La Follette says in his statement:

"It is not a matter of great importance to the public why I became a candidate," and adds:

"The issue of this campaign is the right of the individual, the farmer, the worker, every man who pays the treasure to free himself by lawful means from the unjust exactions of the tariff, the railroads, the trusts, the money power controlling capital and credit and every form of oppression by special privilege."

Senator La Follette indicates that he will subject the public records of candidates for the presidential nomination to close scrutiny.

MUST APPEAR FOR CONTEMPT.

Chicago, March 8.—A climax was reached in Judge Landis' inquiry into the conduct of the business of various loan companies to day when he ordered Luman B. French, a loan agent, to appear in court to morrow and show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court for perjury. French was released on a bond of $10,000. The order came after French had made several contradictory statements regarding the ownership of his business.

THIEF GAVE UP JEWELS.

Chicago, March 8.—A conscience stricken thief returned a sample case containing jewels valued at $1,500 to the office of a transfer company here to day. The case was stolen on Feb. 26, when it was left in a hallway in a loop building by an expressman, who went to look for the owner of the gems. The thief delivered the stolen property while the employes of the company were at luncheon.

Henry Oakes of Bluffs was transacting business in the city yesterday. He says they are expecting a visit next Wednesday from Hon. Samuel Alschuler.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother'sFriend is sold at drug stores. Anna Held's Opinion of An Automobile

Anna Held's Opinion of an Automobile.

Arthur Bunker Motor Car Co

Seattle, Washington.

Gentlemen:

I cannot help but say that the big, luxurious Oakland car that took me so easily and comfortably around your beautiful boulevard is the easiest riding American built car I have seen. Of course, my foreign machines cost me thousands of dollars, but this is the first American built car that I ever thought their equal.

Respectfully yours,

Anna Held.

You will note by Miss Held's letter that she has had experience with foreign built cars which cost her thousands of dollars. You will also note carefully that the Oakland is the first American built car that she ever thought the equal of the high priced foreign made cars. This is one of the best tributes that has ever been paid the Oakland, and, coming as it does from a woman who is in a position to judge of the comparative merits of high priced cars and medium cars, it should carry great weight.

WOMANS CLUB

Dr. Graham Romeyn Taylor of Chicago Speaker This Afternoon and Evening.

The Women's club will hold its regular March meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Academy hall. This meeting is held under the management of the flower garden committee, and its chairman, Miss Louise Capps, has certainly been fortunate in securing for her program so well known a social worker as Mr. Graham Romeyn Taylor. This gentleman is best known as one of the editorial staff of The Survey. Mr. Taylor is also president of the State Playground and Recreation association and is at the same time a vice-president of the national organization. His work along this line has been widely recognized.

The discourse this afternoon will be on the subject of playgrounds, particularly with reference to management, equipment and decoration. As this is a topic of such general interest just now in Jacksonville, it is suggested that members bring with them to the meeting, friends who have not already been guests of the club.

Members who have promised new garments to the philanthropic committee are requested to bring or send them this afternoon.

Mr. Taylor will give a free stereopticon lecture at 8 o'clock this evening at the Congregational church. The subject of his remarks is "Recreation and a Better City." The slides which are to illustrate the lecture were made by Mr. Taylor himself at considerable expense and they are probably the finest collection of their kind in the United States.

The Women's club extends a cordial invitation to all who are interested to attend this lecture. Admittance is free.

How Cold Causes Kidney Trouble.

Partly by driving blood from the surface and congesting the kdneys and partly by throwing too much work upon them. Foley Kidney Pills strengthen the kidneys, give tone to the urine organs and restore the normal action of the bladder. They are tonic in action, quick, quick Try them. J. A. Obermeyer, City drug store.

ENTERTAINED S. S. CLASS.

Miss Etth McCarty entertained the members of her Sunday school class and their mothers at the Centenary M. E. parsonage, Friday afternoon; the hours being from 3 till 5. Miss McCarty teaches the beginners in the Centeary Sunday school, ranging in ages from 2 years to 5 years. The little ones were entertained in a royal manner with music games and toys of an appropriate kind. Refreshments, pleasant to the little ones, as well as the mothers, were served. With the event over, the little ones, with happy faces, bade their teacher good-bye, carrying with them recollections that will always be pleasant.

The following were the names of the children: George Metcalf, Suzanna Joy Rabjohns, Helen Wells, Marion Brown, Frances Boston, Ethel Marie Rexroat, Catherine Decker, Lucile Ledford, Mary Helen McCarty and Louise McCarty.

WILL WED NEXT WEEK.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Neilis Crain of this city to Miss Myrtle Seymour of Woodson, the ceremony to take place March 12 at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Seymour, who reside one mile east of Woodson. Mr. Crain is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Crain of Woodson.

LIBRARY BUILDING AT WAVERLY.

The people of Waverly have met the conditions imposed by Andrew Carnegie and are soon to begin the erection of a $4,500 library building. It is to be brick and stone and is to stand near the northwest corner of the square ujst north of the brick hotel on a vacant lot there. It will be quite an addition to the second city in the county and the Journal congratulates the people on the good things they will enjoy.

PLAY.

A passion for play is the deepest instinct in a child's nature. All young creatures play in their preparation for life. A kitten manifests this joyous activity for several weeks, a dog for several months, while a child's normal period of play covers the first twenty years of his life. To achieve the proper physical and mental development, much play is essential in childhood and youth.

All social and business relations in adult life are forms of group activity. The young child knows nothing of group unity and he can adjust himself to but one playfellow at a time. Gradually he enters more and more into complex relations of groups working for a common end. Just as the adult group organizes for mutual gain, group activity in childhood exists for the purpose of promoting play. By "taking turns" each individual is forced to recognize the equal rights of his companions. When the child reaches the point where respect for group unity dominates his conduct, he has learned a very important life lesson.

The play ground furnishes the greatest freedom to the child. The government of the home and of the school is essentially monarchial in form. Both require many tasks without necessarily consulting the wishes of the child. The government of the playground is democratic. The child may play or not just as he pleases. No game is forced upon him. This freedom of choice fosters decision and develops initiative.

The control of the playground is that of mutual consent. Right ideals of fairness, quickness, alertness and strength prevail. Every game has its rules. The individual is swallowed up in the team and realizes that upon his efforts and success depend the success of others. He learns the meaning of self sacrifice. The honor of the team spurs him on to his best efforts. He learns to play the game and in so doing develops the roots of a social consciousness that both fixes his own responsibility and recognizes the rights and the duties of others. Lessons that social law is real and binding are better taught on the playground than in the class room.

Experts testify that playgrounds lessen crime. Youthful crime is simply a perversion of the play instinct. The street gamin does not progress beyond his environment and is usually overcome by it. To combat this tendency, ample facilities for play should be provided in the vicinity of every school The well equipped playground provides a progression of activities that conform to the growing needs of the child. It is better and by far more economical to utilize a boy's energies in a wholesome way than to allow them to drift into vice and crime for the want of proper direction.

Backache Almost Unbearable

Is an almost certain result of kidney trouble. D. Toomey, 803 Olive St., Bloolmington, Ill., says: "I suffered with backache and pains in my kidneys which wer almost unbearable. I gave Foley Kidney Pills a good trial and they done wonderful for me. oTday I can do hard day's work and not feel the effects." J. A. Obermeyer, City drug store.

A WORTHY EXAMPLE.

A gentleman of this city remarked a day or two ago to a friend. "Give what I feel I should give to my church and do my duty there as I see it, but I am not wholly satisfied with that and each year I want you to come to me and get $10 to be bestowed on some worthy object as you see fit."

The cash was handed over and it is safe to say that the generous donor felt may times repaid by the consciousnss of doing good. If all men would follow such an example, according to their ability, what a beautiful place could be made of this world of ours. Not to help the lazy and inefficient, but the worthy ones who need it.

The "Child's Welfare' movement has challenged the attention of thoughtful people everywhere, others are natural supporters and will find in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound a most valuable aid. Coughs and colds that are unchecked lead to croup, bronchitis and pneumonia, yield quickly to the healing and soothing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. J. A. Obermeyer, City drug store.

COMES QUICKLY.

Don't Have to Wait for Weeks—A Jacksonville Illustration.

Waiting is discouraging.

Prompt action pleases everybody.

A burden on the back is a heavy weight.

Hard to bear day after day.

Lifting weight, removing the burden.

Brings appreciating responses.

Jacksonville people tell of it.

Tell of relief that's quick and sure.

Here is a case of it:

Mrs. Hannah Lansing, 802 North Diamond street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I have never taken any other medicine that has benefited me as greatly as Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Armstrongs' drug store. Several years ago when I was suffering severely from backache, I used this preparation and in a short time I was restored to good health. Another member of my family has also taken Doan's Kidney Pills and praises them highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Grain Letter.

Chicago, Ill., March 8.—Wheat—Wheat dull most of the session, traders generally evening up in anticipation of the government report issued. In spite of the fact that the forecast for world's shipments is moderately bullish the market shows a draggy tone. The farm reserve report showed wheat in farmer's hands to be more than forecasted by most of the private reporters 122,025,000 is bullish as compared with 162,175,000 last year, but its influence is offset by the heavy terminal stocks. Taken as a whole, the report is likely to be a bear influence, at least as far as the May delivery is concerned.

Corn—Throughout most of the session local traders generally expected a bearish report, but were not aggressive sellers. Cash interest reported a slack demand; a like condition was reported at outside points. Owing to railroad troubles, due to the severe winter, movement is still comparatively light, as far as local arrivals are concerned. The government report compared with private estimate is distinctly bearish. Reserve in farmers hands are reported at 884,069,000; year ago 1,165,000,000. Taken in comparison with last years crop, the figures must be called bullish, but recent advance in a measure, discounts them. In all probability a lower market temporarily will follow the report.

Oats—Trade was decidedly broadened. More outside interest was shown. Commission houses were good buyers of September and July. The government estimates the farm reserves at 289,988,000 bushels, which looks small compared with the figures of last year, 442,665,000. This comparatively small farm supply is particularly bullish in view of the fact that the terminal stocks have been much reduced.
